

HTR Pupils experiencing multiple socio economic challenges associated with living in an area with high deprivation (WIMD). Areas are geographically isolated with challenges to physical reach post-16 education establishments. Family background does not provide educational or science-related capital.

